

Collaborative Practice Training Institute (CPTI) presents:

The Parenting Plan in Collaborative Practice

A One Day Interdisciplinary Training on Saturday May 15, 2010

Presenters: Barbara Burr, Esquire, Lisa Herrick, Ph.D., Kate Scharff, M.S.W., Anne (Jan) White, Esquire

This workshop, which will include didactic, discussion, and experiential components, will explore the nuts and bolts of creating a “deep and durable” parenting plan from both the legal and child developmental perspectives. We will explore such topics as:

- The essential elements of the Collaborative parenting plan
- Typical landmines and points of impasse
- The development of a shared narrative
- The pros and cons of various access plans
- When to offer options and when to hold back
- What lawyers look for in a well-crafted parenting plan
- The role of the child specialist in the parenting planning process
- Protocols for communication with and review by attorneys along the way
